

Pro Vice-Chancellor (Engagement)

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN QUEENSLAND

- Newly created leadership role
- Career opportunity with enormous potential
- Springfield/Ipswich/Toowoomba

Established over 50 years ago, USQ is a prominent teaching and research institution providing quality academic programs in a flexible and supportive environment. With three campuses based in south-east Queensland and networks spanning the globe, it is recognised as a leader in online and blended education. USQ is the number 1 university in Queensland for graduate employability, and its research is focused on issues vital to the region.

In this newly created leadership role, the PVC (Engagement) will report to the Vice-Chancellor and manage the strategic development and execution of USQ's philanthropic fundraising programs. In particular, you will provide leadership in key engagement activities across all campuses and manage a portfolio encompassing advancement & fundraising, alumni relations & development, and business and community engagement. You will also act as Head of Springfield and Ipswich campuses as a principal point of contact for business, industry and community engagement.

To succeed in this key role, you will be a high-performing advancement professional with a visionary capacity and the ability to bring USQ's goals to fruition. Importantly, you must be a capable and inspiring leader, who can strengthen relationships and earn the respect and support of key stakeholders and major donors. This is a unique opportunity to make your mark and play a pivotal role in the continued growth of USQ.
